

Hospitality, Leisure and Tourism Takeover!

Did you know?

The hospitality, leisure and travel sector employs 3.2 million people in the UK alone and is the 10th largest industry in the world by revenue.*

With an annual UK turnover of £130bn, the hospitality, leisure and travel sector is bigger than the automotive, pharmaceutical and aeronautics industries combined.*

One in six new jobs created over the last decade were in the UK's hospitality, leisure and travel sector.*

*Source: UK Hospitality

A vast array of rewarding careers are available in one of the world's largest industries

The hospitality sector is on the hunt for new talent and new ideas. Spanning food and beverage, travel and tourism, lodging and recreation, the hospitality sector offers a world of opportunity! In this newsletter, we hear from those already making their way in the industry with case study interviews from top local professionals in hotels, spas, restaurants and pubs. You'll also find articles exploring the skills most looked for as well as ten reasons why people choose hospitality.

Read more here >

Progress, Passion and Perks - The Reasons Why People Choose Hospitality

How do you know if a career in travel, leisure and hospitality is right for you? Discover the top ten reasons why people choose to work in this exciting industry.

Read more here >

Cliveden's 5-Star Culture Champion

An influential school work experience placement triggered a life-long passion for 5 Star hospitality. Now Ruby is helping to shape the culture in the most positive of work environments.

Read Ruby's story >

8 Must-Have Skills in Hospitality

From resilience to emotional intelligence, we explore the transferable skills most looked for by hospitality recruiters.

Read more here >

"I've had a lot of success; I've had failures, so I learn from the failure. Put your head down and work hard. Never wait for things to happen, make them happen for yourself through hard graft and not giving up."

- Gordon Ramsay

Former Chemist Concocts Recipe for the Perfect Country Pub

Once an industrial chemist with a high flying career in pharmaceuticals, Maria found a new way to put her project management skills to use when her life took a sharp left turn. Now she's helping to create the perfect community pub.

Read Maria's story >

Catering for Success at Waddesdon

A 'try everything once' attitude saw Dan transform himself from a 16-year old school leaver with few qualifications to managing 7 catering outlets at Waddesdon, the former country home of the world's richest family.

Read Dan's story >

Facials and Therapeutics Take the Stress Out of Spa Job

Staying on top of trends and learning how to make a personal connection saw Rebecca turn an early fascination with fashion and beauty into a successful career in health and well-being.

Read Rebecca's story >

